

Drama king

Music: WinterBeach

Text: Mal McNaughton

I wanna lay down the cards I have
I wanna cry and I want to laugh
I know I'll scream as I start to drown
I wanna see you swim to the sound
I wanna tear down the night
I wanna come back and know you are mine
I didn't play this to lose!
(I'll tell you)

I want to steal your soul
I want to break the mould
I wanna let you see
I'm not a drama king
Now you can still pretend
I'll want to be your friend
I won't be fooled again
I'm always in control

I want to steal your soul
I want to eat it cold
I wanna let you see
I am not a drama king
Now you can stop pretend
I'll want to be your friend
I won't be fooled again
I'm always in control!

I wanna turn your static world
I wanna crash and I want to burn
I know I fear a painful life
I wanna break all these rusty chains
I wanna tear down the night
I wanna feel the cold truth of life
I didn't play this to lose!
(I'll tell you)

I want to steal your soul
I want to break the mould
I wanna let you see
I'm not a drama king
Now you can still pretend
I'll want to be your friend
I won't be fooled again
I'm always in control.

I want to steal your soul
I want to eat it cold
I wanna let you see
I am not a drama king
Now you can stop pretend
I'll want to be your friend

I won't be fooled again
I'm always in control!

(I'm not a drama king, I'm not a drama king, I'm not a drama king, I'm not a drama king)
I'm not a drama king, I'm always in control
(I'm not a drama king, I'm not a drama king)

I want to steal your soul
I want to break the mould
I wanna let you see
I'm not a drama king
Now you can still pretend
I'll want to be your friend
I won't be fooled again
I'm always in control.

I want to steal your soul
I want to eat it cold
I wanna let you see
I am not a drama king
Now you can stop pretend
I'll want to be your friend
I won't be fooled again
I'm always in control!

I'm not a drama king, I'm always in control, I'm not a drama king, I'm always in control

I want to steal your soul
I want to eat it cold
I wanna let you see
I am not a drama king
Now you can stop pretend
I'll want to be your friend
I won't be fooled again
I'm always in control!
