

Dark minds

Music: WinterBeach

Text: Mal McNaughton

Why?

We tore it apart
To make a new start
Darkness swims around your heart
We're drowning out pain tonight

Why, I wonder why,
We never cry?
And you say that dark minds think alike.
I wonder why,
We always lie?
Apparently dark minds think alike?

In silence we're bound
A prison we've found
Hiding all those broken sounds
That nobody wants to see

Why?

There's no-one to blame
Its one and the same
We all need someone who cares
And will wake us from the night

Why, I wonder why,
We never cry?
And you say that dark minds think alike.
I wonder why,
We always lie?
Apparently dark minds think alike.

(Ah)

I wonder why, we never cry

Why, I wonder why,
We never cry?
And you say that dark minds think alike.
I wonder why,
We always lie?
Apparently dark minds think alike.
